The percentage of students in eighth grade proficient in math on the Iowa Tests of Basic Skills and Iowa Alternate Assessment. Proficiency in math by the end of middle school prepares students for higher-order math classes they will need to succeed in high school as well as the basic skills needed for adult life.

Source: Iowa Department of Education
Percentage change in eighth grade math proficiency, 2003 to 2018

Source: Iowa Department of Education