The average monthly percentage of individuals receiving Family Investment Program financial assistance during the year. Iowa’s version of the federal TANF program provides cash assistance to eligible low-income families for up to 60 months. It serves a small and shrinking share of the population.

Source: Iowa Department of Human Services