Fourth grade reading proficiency, 2018

The percentage of students in fourth grade proficient in reading on the Iowa Tests of Basic Skills and Iowa Alternate Assessment. Reading proficiently by mid-elementary school is an important predictor of future academic success, including high school graduation, and of economic stability in adulthood.

Source: Iowa Department of Education
Percentage change in fourth grade reading proficiency, 2003 to 2018

Source: Iowa Department of Education