Low birthweight, 2018

The percentage of live births weighing at less than 5.5 pounds at the time of birth. Infants born at low birth weight are at higher risk for physical and developmental delays that hinder growth, school readiness and adult health.

Source: Iowa Department of Public Health
Percentage change in prenatal care, 2000 to 2018

Source: Iowa Department of Public Health